

Helen Wheaton Woman of the Year Award

On May 25, 2011, the Women's Association of our church established the Helen Wheaton Woman of the Year Award, which is to be given to a woman in our membership who has discerned God's plan for her life and used her energy, talents and assets to enrich our Christian community.

Helen Wheaton, a lifelong member of our church, was the second baby to be baptized there. Throughout her life, she continued to follow the path God established for her by devoting herself to family, friends, church and community. Her strong spiritual devotion has continually influenced generations of her family, and our church has been blessed by her presence.

The criteria for selection as the recipient of this award are:

1. Membership in our church for at least five years.
2. A demonstrated devotion to God, the Word and the church.
3. The fulfillment of a mission and/or the taking of a leadership role in our church.

Past recipients of this award have been Lois Cooper, Janet Koehler, Pat Wilkins, Bette Warner and Joyce Woodrow. Photographs of these women are displayed in Cooper Memorial Hall.

1. Nominations for this award may be made by women of our church.
2. The recipient of this award will be selected by the executive board of our Women's Association.

Please submit your written nomination for the Woman of the Year award, listing the characteristics and leadership qualities of your nominee to Barbara Daugherty.
